“A Song To Share” by Layton Scarbrough.
“A Song to Share” depicts a woman standing in the wind surrounded by and releasing cardinals. She wears a flower crown made of Virginia’s state flower, the dogwood. The mural is meant to signify that we all have a song to share with the world, whether it’s our talents, our passions, our voices, or our actions. Just as cardinals sing their songs without fear or hesitation, so should we.
